

Momo Announces Acquisition of Tantan

February 23, 2018

BEIJING, Feb. 23, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Momo Inc. (Nasdaq: MOMO) ("Momo" or the "Company"), a leading mobile social networking platform in China, today announced that it has reached a definitive agreement with Tantan Limited ("Tantan") and all of its shareholders, pursuant to which Momo agreed to acquire 100% fully diluted equity stake in Tantan for a combination of share consideration and cash, including approximately 5.3 million newly issued Class A ordinary shares of the Company and US$600.9 million in cash. The deal is expected to close in the second quarter of 2018, subject to customary closing conditions.

Founded in 2015, Tantan is a leading social and dating app in China for the young generation. Tantan is designed to help users to find a romantic connection as well as to meet interesting people. With 5 billion matches and counting, Tantan has become a top choice for Chinese young singles to find love and relationships.

Mr. Yan Tang, Chairman and CEO of Momo said, "Our core position will continue to center on social networking and this acquisition enriches our product line in the social space. We will continue to invest and incubate more sub-brands to serve the social and entertainment needs of different demographics. Tantan has become widely recognized within a short period of three years since its inception, which is largely attributable to the outstanding performance of its talented team. We also respect Tantan's product strategy that focuses on the customer experience of female users. After the acquisition, the Tantan team will continue to operate the mobile apps under the Tantan brand with our full support."

Mr. Yu Wang, Chairman and CEO of Tantan, added, "Momo and Tantan have their own strengths in their respective markets and among targeted customers. The acquisition is a critical strategic upgrade to cover a greater range of user demographics and needs, and build up a larger social networking market through complementary businesses and strategic synergy. We are very confident in our future development."
